Call for Proposals: DOT-Tourism Research Grant

The Department of Tourism (DOT), in line with its objective of promoting a culture of tourism research in the country is calling for research proposals for its 2018 Tourism Research Grant. The DOT is providing financial assistance to individual research in tourism. The grant aims to foster evidence-based planning, decision-making, and policy formulation. Conceptualized by the Office of Tourism Development Planning, Research and Information Management, this new program also seeks to develop a Philippine journal of tourism research studies and other related topics.

The grant is available to all graduate and postgraduate students, faculty members, and tourism practitioners currently enrolled or affiliated with any academic institution or tourism organization. Institutions, societies, universities, NGOs, and civil society groups are NOT eligible to apply. Officials and staff of the Department of Tourism and its attached agencies are also NOT eligible to apply.

Submission of applications and proposals to the DOT-Tourism Research Grant Program will start on July 2, 2018 (Monday) with the following requirements (all forms and downloads can be viewed at this link <http://www.tourism.gov.ph/microsite/tourismresearchgrant/>)

1. Duly Accomplished Application Form
2. Research Abstract
3. Research Proposal
4. Budget Proposal
5. For students only:
  - a. Accomplished Recommendation form from the thesis/dissertation/research adviser or Department Chair, and
  - b. Certificate of Enrollment from the University or Academic Institution
6. For faculty members, Certificate of Employment from the University or Academic Institution
7. For Tourism Practitioners, Certificate of Employment or Affiliation from the Tourism Organization.

Research proposals must be aligned with the DOT Secretary's policy direction for the current year. For 2018, the research themes are:

1. Farm Tourism
2. Culinary

Deadline of applications is on July 31, 2018 (Tuesday) at the close of business hours (5:00 PM). Complete documents must be sent to the Philippine Department of Tourism through dottourismresearchgrant@gmail.com with the following subject line "Surname - Research Theme".
