

Call for Proposals for SALIKHA: CHED-NCCA Grants for Creative Projects of the K to 12 Transition Program

Posted on July 25, 2017

The 2017 Call for Proposals of the SALIKHA: CHED-NCCA Grants for Creative Projects of the K to 12 Transition Program is now open.

Please refer to the Joint Memorandum Circular on the Guidelines for the pertinent information on eligibility criteria, grant terms, and application requirements.

The Commission on Higher Education (CHED) and the National Commission for Culture and the Arts (NCCA) invite all higher education institutions (HEIs) to submit proposals for the 2017 cycle of SALIKHA Creative Grants.

The grants are targeted towards HEIs with faculty or non-teaching personnel affected by the K to 12 Transition, who wish to engage in arts research or creative projects for publication, exhibition, production, or other forms of public use, particularly geared toward advancing Philippine arts and culture and higher education. HEIs may apply as a single institution representing an individual or team, or as the lead institution in a partnership or consortium of HEIs.

Proponents interested in applying for the grants shall submit an accomplished concept proposal form along with other documentary requirements.
